REFRESHED & REVITALIZED.

OUR LOOK CHANGED.

After celebrating our 50th Anniversary, it was time to refresh our logo and look to the future of our organization. We worked closely with branding company Rethink for over a year to change our look.

“BUYING TICKETS AND ENTERING THE THEATRE WAS A VERY SMOOTH PROCESS”

—AUDIENCE SURVEY RESPONSE

WE GOT A NEW TICKETING SYSTEM.

Led by The Cultch’s Patron Development Manager, Kathy Vito, The Cultch took a big step forward and changed our ticketing system. We listened to our customers and while we are still in a transition phase, we are thrilled for all of the opportunities the new system brings.

WE DEBUTED A NEW FESTIVAL.

In the spring of 2025, The Cultch premiered the Warrior Festival which spotlights brave, liberating and political works of theatre. The Warrior Festival celebrates the strength of artists who are reclaiming space, rewriting narratives, and advocating for justice from the stage to the street.

A MESSAGE FROM HEATHER
& NICOLE.

“LAST YEAR AS WE CELEBRATED OUR 50TH ANNIVERSARY, WE LOOKED BACK AND HONOURED
OUR FOUNDERS. THIS YEAR
FOR OUR 51ST, WE MADE
BIG CHANGES AND BEGAN
CHARTING A PATH TO THE FUTURE.”

The Cultch got a fresh new logo and brand, we launched a new ticketing system, and we created the Warrior Festival. We have had wonderful feedback from you about the ease of purchasing tickets on the new system. Yay! We love our new colours and spirally logo that really speak to the joy and wonderment artists at The Cultch are bringing to the community. We are very proud of the programming we were able to bring you as part of this year’s Warrior Festival. Each of the shows was unique and together they painted a picture of the courage and humour that artists are bringing to these tumultuous times.

With 92 sold out performances and our best attendance ever, it was a fabulous season. Reading over the comments you sent us in audience surveys, we are struck by how thoughtful you are and how vital attending a live performance is for you.

This Impact Report tells the story of how and why The Cultch is essential. Thank you to everyone who is a part of making it real.

xo,

Heather Redfern, Executive Director
Nicole McLuckie, Associate Executive Director

MISSION STATEMENT.

ART To activate, engage, and encourage discourse through live performance

COMMUNITY To cultivate a wide and diverse community of artists, audiences and supporters

PATRON LOYALTY To build long-lasting and meaningful relationships with everyone who chooses to participate with The Cultch Space—to be the best contemporary cultural centre in Canada

OUR VALUES Art is at the centre of everything we do. We value everyone that chooses to create, work, and participate in the activities of the centre. Service to citizens is a core value.

We embrace diversity. We meaningfully engage all generations. We respect the past and acknowledge and celebrate our elders. We value inspiration. We listen and respond. We work within our means. We are mindful that we work on unceded territory. We are mindful of the Climate Emergency in all we do.

INDIGENOUS PROGRAMMING.

The Cultch creates meaningful artistic gatherings on the traditional, ancestral, and unceded territories of the xʷməθkʷəy̓ əm (Musqueam), S wx wú7mesh (Squamish), and səɫ ilwəta ɬ (Tsleil-Waututh) nations.

Proud Supporter of Indigenous Programming at The Cultch: The Ronald S. Roadburg Foundation

Raven Mother

The Cultch was honoured to welcome back the Ronald S. Roadburg Foundation as the Sustaining Sponsor for Indigenous Programming. The Roadburg Foundation’s principle of Tikkun Olam, or repair of the world, and their commitment to supporting populations disproportionately affected by circumstance or inequities, are reflective of the values we work from at The Cultch. Their gift is supporting Indigenous productions, ceremonies and gatherings, and providing a free ticket program for patrons who identify as Indigenous. This support has also created opportunities for Indigenous workers to bring their perspective to outreach and creation.

1950+ FREE TICKETS PROVIDED

WHAT IS CULTCH CONNECTS?

Cultch Connects is our ticket donation program (funded by generous individual donors, legacy gifts from people like Madelene Vale Bird, and the Ronald S. Roadburg Foundation) that allows us to give complimentary tickets to community organizations. The Cultch Connects Program provides a special night out for families and individuals that otherwise could not attend.

CULTCH CONNECTS INDIGENOUS TICKETS:

This season our Indigenous Programs sustaining sponsors, the Ronald S. Roadburg Foundation, supported Cultch Connects tickets to Indigenous folks specifically.

“WE WENT TO A CHILDREN OF GOD PERFORMANCE LAST WEEK, AND WE WANT TO THANK THE CULTCH, AND EVERYBODY WHO WAS INSTRUMENTAL IN PROVIDING THE TICKETS FOR LOW-INCOME RESIDENTS, FROM THE BOTTOM OF OUR HEARTS. WE WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN ABLE TO GO WITHOUT THOSE EFFORTS.”

TOTAL 137

The Cultch’s four venues were kept very busy this season with 137 total rentals. We were a destination for all types of events and performances. From stand up comedy, to hair shows, to anniversary celebrations, book signings, and graduations. With an eclectic mix of local and famous entertainers gracing our stages including: the cast of Coronation Street Tim Talks, stand up comedian Ivan Decker, Lady Bunny’s Don’t Bring The Kids, and Niall Harbison and Jann Arden’s book signing.

THE CULTCH GALLERY.

12 Exhibitions (one a month)
Approx artists 60
Approx art works 240

The Gallery at The Cultch is a community based exhibition space that features artworks by dozens of local artists throughout the year. Artists are selected from an annual call and chosen by our Curator Yuri Arais and Executive Director Heather Redfern. Artists have the opportunity to work with a professional Curator, have their work shown in a well known established cultural venue, have a public reception, are paid an exhibition honourarium, and receive 80% of all art sales.

THE CULTCH STAFF.

OUR 2024/25 SEASON employed approximately 152 Staff, which included 89 IATSE stage staff, 30 Box Office attendants, Bartenders, and Front of House staff.
