

Join The Cultch's Board of Directors

The Cultch is Vancouver's most diverse and innovative arts and cultural hub, sparking meaningful connections across communities for over 50 years.

As a presenting theatre, we showcase extraordinary local, national, and international performances. From theatre and dance to music, circus, and visual arts, our programming is dynamic, thought-provoking, and full of creative energy.

But we are more than just shows — we are a gathering place! A place where conversations happen, ideas take root, and communities come together. Visit thecultch.com to learn more about us.

Board of Directors overview

The Board of Directors plays a critical role in advancing the mission and vision of The Cultch, offering strategic foresight, governance oversight, and organizational insight. In close collaboration with Cultch leadership, the Board helps shape policy, guides high-level decision-making, and ensures the organization's long-term financial sustainability and resilience.

Board members are expected to contribute their time, expertise, and networks in support of The Cultch's mission. This includes active participation in meetings, committees, fundraising efforts, and strategic initiatives.

Please consider joining The Cultch's Board if:

- You are passionate about the arts
- Love community
- Want to help The Cultch drive its bold five-year strategic plan

We'd particularly love to hear from you if you bring skills or experience in any of the following areas:

- Public Relations & Communications
- Financial, Business, & Strategic Planning
- Fundraising & Development

How to apply and the process:

Please send a brief expression of interest and your resume to board@thecultch.com.

Our board will be reviewing applications as they are received and contacting individuals selected for an interview by email.

The Cultch's Board of Directors is committed to fostering a culture of equity, diversity, inclusion, and accessibility—both within its own composition and across the organization. These values guide the Board's priorities and inform its ongoing learning and development. The Board also strives to reflect the diverse communities The Cultch serves, recognizing that inclusive representation strengthens governance and deepens community connection.

We strongly encourage applicants who identify as members of underrepresented groups to apply. Additionally, do not hesitate to let us know if you have any access needs.
